

Jeffrey V. Brownfield, CPA

Chief, Division of Audits

California State Controller's Office

Professional Experience

Mr. Brownfield is the Chief of the California State Controller's Office, Division of Audits. He joined the State Controller's Office as an entry level auditor over 38 years ago and has held a number of positions within the Division of Audits.

As Division Chief, Mr. Brownfield oversees the work of ten Bureaus and over 300 staff members. The Division's responsibilities include audits of local government mandate claims, local government remittances of state monies, and contracted audit work on behalf of other state and federal agencies.

Education

Mr. Brownfield has a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, with a concentration in Accounting, from California State University, Sacramento. He is a Certified Public Accountant, and has a Certificate in Pension Funds and Money Management from the Wharton School of Management, University of Pennsylvania.